Data Protection Act

We may use the personal and business details you have given us or which are supplied by third parties, including any details of your directors, officers, partners and employees whose consent you must obtain to allow us to provide you with a quotation; deal with your policy; to search credit reference and fraud agencies who may keep a record of the search; to share with other insurance organisations to help offset risks, to help administer your policy and to handle claims and prevent fraud; to support the development of our business by including your details in customer surveys, and for market research and compliance business reviews which may be carried out by third parties acting on our behalf.

We may need to collect data relating to Insured Persons, which under the Data Protection Act is defined as sensitive (such as medical history of Insured Persons) for the purpose of evaluating the risk or administering claims which may occur. By signing this form you consent to such information being processed by us. You must also ensure that you make this fact known to the Insured Persons and obtain their explicit prior consent to pass this information to us for these purposes.

We may share your details with other companies within the Allianz group of companies or pass them to third parties so that we may tell you by telephone, email or post of products and services which we think may be of interest to you. If you do not want to know about these products and services, please write to: Customer Satisfaction Manager, Allianz Insurance plc, 57 Ladymead, Guildford, Surrey, GU1 1DB to let us know. Your details will not be kept for longer than is necessary.

Under the Data Protection Act 1998 individuals are entitled to a copy of all the personal information Allianz Insurance plc holds about them. Please contact the Customer Satisfaction Manager at the address above.

Personal details may be transferred to countries outside the EEA. They will at all times be held securely and handled with the utmost care in accordance with all principles of English law.

I apply for cover on behalf of the Club.

Cover will be effective from the date of acceptance by Marshall Wooldridge.

I confirm that:

- no insured person undertakes any form of manual work for us that is not typical given the nature of club activities shown overleaf
- neither us nor our directors, officers partners or committee members have:
  - been convicted of or charged (but not yet tried) with a criminal offence other than (road traffic) motor offences
  - received an official caution for a criminal offence within the last three years other than a (road traffic) motoring offence
  - been declared bankrupt and/or have been subject of any winding up order, petition, insolvent, liquidation or administration or have made any composition or arrangement with creditors
  - been a director, officer or partner of a company which has gone into insolvency, liquidation receivership or administration.
- In respect of the business which is the subject of this insurance contract, or any other business which we, our directors officers partners or committee members have been involved with, no insurer has ever:
  - declined, cancelled or refused any proposal of insurance
  - cancelled or declined to renew any insurance
  - imposed special terms or condition
- there are no other material facts* which we have failed to disclose

* Material facts are facts likely to influence Allianz in the assessment of this application and it is essential that you disclose them. If you are in any doubt about whether a fact is material, then for your own protection you should disclose it as failure to do so could make your policy invalid.
