Directors and Officers Liability

This provides the Insured and its directors, officers and/or trustees of the club with protection against civil or criminal lawsuits and regulatory proceedings. Without this cover members are placing their entire personal assets at risk. The cover provides a pool of money that can be drawn on to fund defence and settlement costs and to pay for the costs of legal representation at investigations.

Corporate Liability is standard cover extending the policy to respond to claims made against the club. If an organisation is found guilty of Corporate Manslaughter by the HSE made under the Corporate Manslaughter and Corporate Homicide Act 2007, for the way in which its activities were managed or organised and this causes a death in the workplace and/or if there has been a gross breach of duty of care to the person who died, our policy will look to defend.

Clubs may not immediately conjure up thoughts of disputes and litigation. However, life can be as complicated for these bodies and their trustees as it is for commercial companies and their directors. Current case law and statute can create a personal and unlimited liability for trustees. This means that without adequate insurance protection, civil or criminal lawsuits, and regulatory proceedings against trustees put his/her entire personal estate at risk.

Potential Sources of claims for Incorporated Clubs:

Employee rights and obligations	Accusations of mismanagement
Breach of fiduciary duties	Insolvency
Health and safety investigations and/or prosecutions	Libel and slander
Intellectual property infringements	Trading standards

Claims Example: a director faced criminal prosecutions for alleged breaches of health and safety legislation, which resulted in the accidental deaths of two employees.

Claims Example: whilst the Club was in receivership, a director signed a company cheque to pay a key supplier. The cheque was dishonoured and the director was found personally liable for the amount of the cheque.

Potential Sources of claims for Unincorporated Clubs:

Employee rights and obligations	Tax
Property	Libel and slander
Winding up	Trading standards

Claims Example: committee members of a Club who employed an incompetent person to repair a stand were held personally liable to people injured when the stand collapsed.

Claims Example: a Club held its alcohol sales licence in its treasurers name. A trading standards officer found short measures being sold at the group's premises. Defence costs were incurred in defending the treasurer in the criminal proceedings which resulted.

As an additional benefit, this policy is extended to cover Crime. The cover is broken down as follows:

Act of Fraud or Dishonesty: This will provide cover in respect of loss of money, securities and goods, the property of you or for which you are responsible at law, resulting directly from any act of Fraud or dishonesty committed by a club official or employee acting alone or in collusion with others. This extends to cover fraudulent or dishonest misuse or manipulation by a third party of the computer systems and programmes operated by you.

Forgery: This will indemnify you for the loss of money or securities resulting from forgery.

Funds Transfer Fraud: This will provide indemnity to you for the theft of any of your funds from an account maintained by you at a financial institution following fraudulent electronic, telegraphic, cable, teletype, telephone or written instructions to debit such account and to transfer, pay or deliver funds from such account and which instructions purport to have come from you, but which are fraudulently transmitted or issued, are a forgery or fraudulently altered by another.

For full details of the policy and a list of exclusions you should refer to the policy wording, a copy of which is available on request.

The insurers of the Directors and Officers Liability Section of cover are Zurich Insurance plc.
